A business that makes nothing but money is a poor business, said Henry Ford. SSGC may be in the transmission and distribution business but at the same time it also runs a CSR program through which it makes a positive impact on the lives of the marginalized communities around it. Be it education, health care, environment and community development, SSGC ensures that its efforts bring a positive change in peoples' lives.

Message from the Managing Director

Dear colleagues,

The Board of Directors recently entrusted me the charge of Acting Managing Director of SSGC. I consider it an honour to lead a Company that is rated as one of the best energy sector firms in Pakistan.

Today SSGC is confronted with numerous challenges. The menace of Unaccounted-for-Gas (UFG) is one apart from the widening demand-supply gap of natural gas due to dwindling reserves. Then, of course, there is the issue of mounting overdues that a number of companies owes SSGC. The Company management has been focused on overcoming these hurdles but obviously a collective effort from each and every employee is required.

On the accounts side, there is a good news. I am glad to say that after a gap of three years, the Company has made profits as our balance sheet for FY 2016-17 has shown. While the impressive numbers point towards a promising future ahead, there is little room for complacency as we enter the new calendar year.

In these challenging times, each one of us must rise above their routine tasks and emerge as a sincere, focused and imaginative leader.

All the very best,

Mohammad Wasim

A new dawn, a new day

Dear readers,

S SGC has for quite some time been faced with challenges such as Unaccounted-for-Gas and demand-supply gap. The Company's UFG levels, over the year, have reached worrisome levels prompting the Company to take all relevant measures to arrest the trend. The concerted efforts of SSGC management and executives are bearing fruit.

During FY 2016-17, whose accounts were recently approved by OGRA, SSGC made a profitable turnaround after three lean years. This return to profitability will surely help restore the shareholders' confidence on the Company as well as renew our vigour as we begin 2019.

Please find in this issue a comprehensive "Year in Review" section.

All the best,

Ed

SSGC cuts down numerous illegal connections; two culprits also arrested

SSGC tightened its noose on gas thieves by conducting a number of raids in its franchise provinces of Sindh and Balochistan during January 2019. The raids were carried out by the Security Services and Counter Gas Theft Operations Team in conjunction with SSGC Police.

In different raids, two culprits were arrested on spot who were stealing gas by using direct connection from the gas line. The team conducted a raid in Karachi's Dawood Bachani Goth where a culprit named Abdul Ghani was running a water hydrant unit by using stolen gas for power generation. The raiding party arrested Ghani from the spot. Another raid was carried out in a Pakwan centre in Gulshan-e-Maymar where the culprit Shakeel Muhammad was stealing gas from direct line by using rubber pipe. SSGC's team dismantled the connection and removed rubber pipes and other material which were being used in stealing gas.

Similar raids were also conducted in the different areas of Quetta. SSGC is determined to intensify crackdown on such culprits in future as it badly affects Company's financial position. ■

A united stand against cancer

SSGC Women Association (SSGCWA) and the AKU Cancer Survivors Support Group organized an impressive event at the Head Office Auditorium related to cancer and other medical conditions. The Program revolved around the message that “There is a CAN in CANCER”, which means that through determination, will power, pray and courage, a cancer patient can combat this disease. This event was arranged to bring attention to the ongoing challenges of cancer survival, and to show the world that life after a cancer diagnosis can be fruitful, rewarding, and even inspiring. Another objective was to create awareness in the community, especially among SSGC women about breast and ovarian cancers and other forms of malignant diseases. Purple was the colour selected for the outfits at the event.

A number of women from MIRROR Group suffering from cancer were specially invited to encourage them to conquer this disease. Ms. Asma Butt, President, SSGCWA, herself a cancer survivor emphasized that she personally does not like the term ‘survivor’ and instead prefers being called a ‘conqueror’. Also present on the occasion were oncologists Dr. Zarka Samoon and Dr. Benazir from the Aga Khan University Hospital, who gave a new lease of life to some of the cancer patients invited in the program. Ms. Asma paid tributes to these doctors and also lauded the role of SSGC Medical Department’s Dr. Quratul Ain Noman and Dr. Sarwat Raza.

The program revolved around two main segments. One was a well-scripted humour play by the name “Hausla” and the other was the spiritual Sufi Dance performance by renowned artist Munawwar Haider Chao, a.k.a. Mani Chao. The play was written by Rashid Ahmed of IT Department with brilliant performance staged by Rozina Ejaz, Asim Rafique, Zahoor, Kainat, Wajeeha and Inamullah. It presented a life of an exuberant young girl who became a victim of brain tumor and how she combated this disease, thanks to her willpower, family support, doctors and near and dear ones. A very clear message related to the hazards of use of cellphones was also conveyed the skit performance.

Mohammad Rashid (CRD) and Mohsin (Services Department) were the lead singers for the evening and gave a beautiful mashup of hits songs. The segments were interspersed by interesting activities such as dumb charade, sing-a-song, and tongue-twisters.

At the entrance of the event, booths were installed by Easy Peasy Conconations, U&I Collections by Aneesa Younus and other concerns.

SSGCWA President, Ms. Asma Butt gave her accolades and appreciation to the senior Management, the supporting departments, including the Admin. Services, Services, CCD, the Executive Committee Members of the Women Association and the organizing committee members, specially Rana Khan, Summera Shaheen, Farhana Gulmir Khan, Taniya Khan, Sabeen Naqvi, Saima Supro, Deepak Rana, Muhammad Faraz Ameen and Zeeshan Jamali for their hard work and dedication in conducting such a power packed show. **○

Annual Report 2016-17 takes inspiration from the history

Every SSGC Annual Report has a certain theme running through it. The theme, worded as 'Taking Inspiration from History and Moving Forward' is basically a reflection of the Company's operations, goals and values. The 2016-17 annual accounts recently produced by the Corporate Communication Department took inspiration from pages of Pakistan's history. It would not be wrong to say that the Report fittingly paid tribute to Quaid-e-Azam Muhammad Ali Jinnah and the founding fathers who carved out a nation for the teeming millions, despite many hurdles that stood their way. **◻

A Project Management Professional (PMP®) Certification

I am writing this article to encourage PMP aspirants who may be scared to attempt PMI® PMP® Certification Exam.

The PMP® Certification is widely accepted as the global benchmark to recognize proficiency in Project Management and it is the most recognized certification for working professionals.

It does not matter which department you work for, PMP certification provides you with a set of tools and knowledge that enhances your ability to manage projects both effectively and efficiently, thereby directly impacting productivity of the company.

A PMP® certification provides you with a plethora of opportunities to connect and network with people having interest in project management.

There are several closed communities on LinkedIn for only PMP® certified professionals that not only allow you to learn from peers, but also open up career avenues and provide job opportunities that would not have been possible before.

Why are Industries Going Crazy About PMP® Certified Professionals?

The growing complexity of industrial challenges has led to a crisis of human resources who can meet the demands of projects across the globe. PMP® certification offered by PMI is designed on rigorous standards and ongoing research to enable you to meet the real-world challenges of organizations.

PMP® certification is the gold standard of project management certification which is developed by practitioners for practitioners.

If you are getting curious about how can a certification help you to be in demand for various organizations across all industries, then you have picked the right spot to clear your doubts

If you are planning to take up the PMP® certification exam soon then the following 8 steps will surely help you to plan your schedules to clear the exam at the first attempt:

1. Begin with the PMP® Handbook

The PMP® Handbook is a guide to all your queries about the procedures for applying and taking the exam. It consists of all the information that you need about the process of taking the PMP Exam and become a PMP® certified project manager.

2. Fulfill the prerequisites to become a PMI Certified Project Manager

You must fulfill the following educational and experience requirements in order to take the PMP® exam:

- If you have a high school diploma, an associate degree, or the global equivalent of these, then you must hold a minimum of 60 months of unique, non-overlapping project management experience. Moreover, you should have spent at least 7,500 hours of these 60 months in leading and directing project tasks.

- If you have a bachelors or its equivalent in your country then you must possess a minimum of 36 months of non-overlapping and unique project management experience of which you must have spent 4,500 hours in directing and leading project tasks.
- You must also show 35 contact hours of project management training in both cases.

3. Become a Member of your local PMI Chapter

Once you get a PMI membership, you realize that the discount is bigger than the membership fee. Apart from the free PDF version of PMBOK® Guide and discount on PMP® Exam, you stay updated with information related to PMP Prep Workshops once you become a PMI member.

Moreover, you also get an opportunity to network and interact with the new and seasoned PMPs which increases your chance to clear your exam at the first go.

4. Sign up for your PMP Exam

- I am sure, you will agree that exam preparations work better when there's a deadline. Start with your PMP application procedure by visiting www.pmi.org to register and then filling up your PMP Credential Application. You need to submit the same to PMI for approval (You have 90 days to complete the application once you started it). In case your application is selected for Audit Process, you have 90 days to send your audit materials. Once you receive your confirmation number, you can schedule your exam on the www.prometric.com

5. Study the PMBOK® Guide 6th Edition

Once you start preparing for your PMP® certification exam, you can use PMBOK® Guide as your primary reference. According to my experience, one can find the correct answer for around 75% of the exam questions in the PMBOK® Guide. So, you must treat it as a resource and read it thoroughly. You can also read Rita Mulcahy's PMP Exam

Prep 9th Edition and Head First PMP 4th Edition as reference books.

6. Attend a PMP® Workshop

PMP® workshop for 4 days is conducted by Learning & Development Center (LDC). This workshop gives you an opportunity to interact with the certified instructor to help you clear your queries about the PMP® certification exam.

7. Attempt at least 4 Mock Tests

There are numerous authentic mock tests available on the internet and you can use the same to check your learning curve. This will provide you with a reality check and will also help you identify weak areas that you can further focus on. You should also keep a track of your scores to see where you are.

8. Take the exam

After all the hard work, it's time for you to appear for your PMP® certification exam. Don't skip the short tutorial on how to use the computer and the software at the beginning of the exam to avoid a blunder.

Please note that your certification cycle begins the day you pass the exam and are bestowed credential. You are required to earn and report 60 Professional Development Units (PDU) within this 3-year cycle to renew the certification. ◻

Traits of a good leader

“A leader is one who knows the way, goes the way, and shows the way.”

T Irrespective of how you define a leader, he or she can prove to be a difference maker between success and failure.

A good leader has a futuristic vision and knows how to turn his ideas into real-world success stories. Let us look at some of the important leadership qualities that separate good leaders from a bad one.

1. Honesty and Integrity

Former President Dwight.D.Eisenhower of USA once said, “The supreme quality of leadership is unquestionably integrity. Without it, no real success is possible, no matter whether it is on a section gang, a football field, in an army, or in an office.” Honesty and integrity are two important ingredients which make a good leader.

How can you expect your followers to be honest when you lack these qualities yourself? Leaders succeed when they stick to their values and core beliefs and without ethics, this will not be possible.

2. Confidence

To be an effective leader, you should be confident enough to ensure that other follow your commands. If you are unsure about your own decisions and qualities, then your subordinates will never follow you. As a leader, you have to be oozing with confidence, show some swagger and assertiveness to gain the respect of your subordinates.

This does not mean that you should be overconfident, but you should at least reflect the degree of confidence required to ensure that your followers trust you as a leader.

3. Inspire Others

“If your actions inspire others to dream more, learn more, do more and become more, you are a leader.”

Probably the most difficult job for a leader is to persuade others to follow. It can only be possible if you inspire your followers by setting a good example. When the going gets tough, they look up to you and see how you react to the situation. If you handle it well, they will follow you.

As a leader, should think positive and this positive approach should be visible through your actions. Stay calm under pressure and keep the motivation level up.

If you are successful in inspiring your subordinates, you can easily overcome any current and future challenge easily.

4. Commitment and Passion

Your teams look up to you and if you want them to give them their all, you will have to be passionate about it too. When your teammates see you getting your hands dirty, they will also give their best shot.

It will also help you to gain the respect of your subordinates and infuse new energy in your team members, which helps them to perform better. If they feel that you are not fully committed or lacks passion, then it would be an uphill task for the leader to motivate your followers to achieve the goal.

5. Good Communicator

Until you clearly communicate your vision to your team and tell them the strategy to achieve the goal, it will be very difficult for you to get the results you want. Simply put, if you are unable to communicate your message effectively to your team, you can never be a good leader. A good communicator can be a good leader. Words have the power to motivate people and make them do the unthinkable. If you use them effectively, you can also achieve better results. 🔴

6. Decision-Making Capabilities

Apart from having a futuristic vision, a leader should have the ability to take the right decision at the right time. Decisions taken by leaders have a profound impact on masses. A leader should think long and hard before taking a decision but once the decision is taken, stand by it. Although, most leaders take decisions on their own, but it is highly recommended that you consult key stakeholders before taking a decision. After all, they are the ones who will benefit or suffer from your decisions.

7. Accountability

When it comes to accountability, you need to follow the approach highlighted by Arnold H Glasow when he said, "A good leader takes little more than his share of the blame and little less than his share of the credit." Make sure that every one of your subordinates is accountable for what they are doing. If they do well, give them a pat on the back but if they struggle, make them realize their mistakes and work together to improve.

Holding them accountable for their actions will create a sense of responsibility among your subordinates and they will go about the business more seriously.

8. Delegation and Empowerment

You cannot do everything, right. It is important for a leader to focus on key responsibilities while leaving the rest to others. By that, I mean empowering your followers and delegating tasks to them. If you continue to micromanage your subordinates, it will develop a lack of trust and more importantly, you will not be able to focus on important matters, as you should be. Delegate tasks to your subordinates and see how they perform. Provide them with all the resources and support they need to achieve the objective and give them a chance to bear the responsibility.

9. Creativity and Innovation

What separates a leader from a follower? Steve Jobs, the greatest visionary of our time answers this question this way, "Innovation distinguishes between a leader and a follower." In order to get ahead in today's fast-paced world, a leader must be creative and innovative at the same time. Creative thinking and constant innovation is what makes you and your team stand out from the crowd. Think out of the box to come up with unique ideas and turn those ideas and goals into reality.

10. Empathy

Last but certainly not the least, is empathy. Leaders should develop empathy with their followers. Unfortunately, most leaders follow a dictatorial style and neglect empathy altogether.

Due to this, they fail to make a closer connection with their followers. Understanding the problems of your followers and feeling their pain is the first step to become an effective leader. Even that is not enough until you work hard and provide your followers with the suitable solution to their problems. ◻

Pakistan signs $10 bn gas pipeline agreement with Russia

As a major sign of increasing economic cooperation, Pakistan and Russia recently signed an inter corporate agreement for the laying of more than 1,500 km offshore gas pipeline costing $10 billion that would be transporting natural gas from the Russian gas company Gazprom's sources in the Middle East to Pakistan with possibility of extending it further to South Asian countries.

Mobin Saulat, Managing Director of Inter-State Gas Systems (ISGS), a state-owned company with the mandate to build gas pipelines and gas import projects, and Vitaly A Markelov of Russian Gazprom Gas Company signed this Inter Corporate Agreement (between companies) here.

Initially, the feasibility study of this $10 billion offshore gas pipeline project would be carried out by Gazprom at its own expense. The pipeline would follow an integrated approach, including other ancillary projects such as Under Ground Gas storage, desalination and other power projects.

Pakistan will import some 500 million to one billion cubic feet of gas per day (MMCFD) from these Russian sources, which would be transported via sea link, the agreement stipulates.

The pipeline construction is expected to be completed in three to four years.

Russia holds huge gas deposits in Bahrain, Qatar and other Middle Eastern countries and had offered Pakistan and India gas exports by laying the offshore pipeline that would be passing through Gwadar.

A Russian delegation headed by Vitaly A. Markelov, Deputy Chairman of the Management committee, PJSC, 'Gazprom' International, visited the Petroleum Division and held a meeting with Petroleum Minister Ghulam Sarwar Khan and other government officials.

Aramco's major ambitions

A Saudi Aramco, the world's biggest crude exporter, has ambitions to become a global energy company on par with ExxonMobil or Shell as it looks to venture into international exploration and production.

"We are no longer going to be inward-looking and focused only on monetising the kingdom's resources," Energy Minister Khalid Al Falih said recently. "Going forward, the world is going to be Saudi Aramco's playground."

Aramco, which produces all of the kingdom's crude reserves on behalf of the state, has largely restricted itself to developing those resources domestically and has not ventured overseas upstream. In recent years, the state producer acquired refining and chemical assets abroad as part of its pivot towards leveraging its downstream portfolio and locking in long-term market share for its crude.

It has been working towards its transformation as an international energy company, notably announcing its intention to list about 5 per cent of the company – a move that has been delayed following plans to acquire 70 per cent of downstream producer Sabic.

When asked if Aramco planned to become an integrated global company taking after Big Oil players such as Anglo-Dutch major Shell or ExxonMobil, scouting for oil and gas assets abroad, Mr Al Falih replied, "correct".

Saudi Arabia has previously looked at energy investments in Russia, notably in liquefied natural gas. The Saudi oil minister was present for the opening of Russia's Arctic LNG project operated by Novatek and Total in 2017, alongside Russian President Vladimir Putin. The two countries, which have led supply corrections in the oil market including the 1.2 million barrel per day curbs in place for six months from the start of the year have established a $1 billion fund to explore for energy investments together.

Aramco, which owns the largest refinery in the US, has been eyeing the North American shale gas boom and has expressed interest in exploring for gas assets in the country. **◉

روشنی کا سفر

یہ مضمون سوئی سدرن گیس کمپنی کے "کاروباری اصول اور اخلاقی حکمت عملی" کو سیکھنے، سمجھنے اور عمل کرنے کی غرض سے لکھا جا رہا ہے مضمون کی طوالت کی وجہ سے قسط وار شائع کیا جائیگا۔

اندھیرا ہے، علم جنت کا راستہ ہے اور جہالت جہنم کا راستہ ہے۔ علم ہمیں تعظیم سکھاتا ہے، رہبری سکھاتا ہے، نیکی، ہمدردی، رحم دلی، ایمان داری اور اخلاقیات سکھاتا ہے۔ صحیح اور غلط کا فرق سمجھاتا ہے۔ ادب اور محبت کرنا سکھاتا ہے، تحقیق اور جستجو کرنا بتاتا ہے، غرض علم ہمیں یہ اطمینان دلاتا ہے کہ ہم اشرف المخلوقات میں سے ہیں، ہماری صحیح معنوں میں پہچان کراتا ہے، حکمت اور دانائی سکھاتا ہے۔ علم ہمیں خالق سے ملاتا ہے، اس کا تعارف کرواتا ہے، اس کی بڑائی بتاتا ہے، اس سے محبت کرنا سکھاتا ہے، لیکن ادب اور افرام برداری کے ساتھ۔ علم اور ادب کا ساتھ ایسا ہے جیسا کہ روح اور بدن کا ساتھ۔

تو پھر آج سے ہم یہ عہد کرتے ہیں کہ ہم بھی طالب علم بن جائیں گے اور بقیہ زندگی میں جتنا ہو سکے علم حاصل کریں گے۔ (جاری ہے)

واہ کیا بات ہے اللہ رب العزت کی جس نے انسان کو بے بارود دگا نہیں چھوڑا اس کی ہدایت کی فکر کی اور اپنے کرم کی بارش کی اور اس کو بتایا کہ سب سے زیادہ انسان کی زندگی میں کس چیز کی اہمیت ہے اور بتایا بھی دلیل کے ساتھ۔

دوستوں یہ ہے روشنی کا سفر جو عارحرا سے شروع ہوا اور تا قیامت جاری رہے گا، اس کی روشنی انسان کی زندگی کے لئے مشعل راہ ہے۔ یہ سفر وہ سفر ہے جو کہ اللہ کو پسند ہے، اس کے مسافر اللہ کو پسند ہیں۔ جو شخص اس سفر سے انکار کرے یعنی علم حاصل نہ کرے، علم حاصل کرنے کی کوشش بھی نہ کرے وہ گمراہ ہو جاتا ہے، چاہے وہ امیر ہو یا چاہے وہ غریب ہو، شہری ہو یا دیہاتی، مزدور ہو یا کسان، کاروباری ہو یا زمیندار، گورا ہو یا کالا، ایشیائی ہو یا یورپی، یونانی ہو یا ایرانی، عربی ہو یا گجی، اعلیٰ نصب ہو یا عام نصب، مشہور ہو یا گمنام، سب کے لئے علم روشنی ہے اور جہالت

علم ادب اور تعظیم کے ساتھ ہو تو جوں جوں جاتا ہے، جن، علم بے ادب اور غرور ہو تو ہین جاتا ہے شیطان،

علم روشنی ہے اور اور جہالت اندھیرا ہے۔ علم کا مطلب آگاہی اور کسی چیز کے بارے میں جاننا۔ جہالت نہ جاننا یا جانتے ہوئے بھی غفلت برتنا یا جانتے ہوئے بھی کسی چیز کو رد کر دینا یا ضد اور ان کی خاطر اس کو تسلیم نہ کرنا۔ قرآن پاک کی نزول کی پہلی پانچ آیات پر غور کریں جو حضور پاک ﷺ پر عارحرا میں نازل ہوئیں۔

- ۱۔ پڑھو اپنے پروردگار کا نام لے کر جس نے سب کچھ پیدا کیا۔
- ۲۔ اس نے انسان کو جنمے ہوئے خون سے پیدا کیا ہے۔
- ۳۔ پڑھو، اور تمہارا پروردگار سب سے زیادہ کرم والا ہے۔
- ۴۔ جس نے قلم سے تعلیم دی۔
- ۵۔ انسان کو اس بات کی تعلیم دی جو وہ نہیں جانتا تھا۔

نئی قیادت، نئے عزم

سوئی سدرن گیس کمپنی کو ایک مدت سے کئی چیلنجز کا سامنا ہے جس میں طلب و رسد کا فرق اور یو ایف جی میں پریشان کن اضافے کو مد نظر رکھتے ہوئے کمپنی نے تمام تدارکی اقدامات کو بروئے کار لایا ہے۔ سوئی سدرن کی مینجمنٹ اور ایگزیکٹوز کی انتھک محنت بار آور ثابت ہوئی ہیں۔ مالی سال 2016-17 کے اوگر سے تصدیق شدہ اکاؤنٹس کے مطابق کمپنی نے تین مشکل سالوں کے بعد منافع رپورٹ کیا ہے۔ اس منافع کے باعث شیئر ہولڈرز کا اعتماد بحال ہوگا اور یہ ہمارے جذبے کو ایک نئی جلا بخشنے گا۔
